

RED MEAT UPDATES

TASMANIA

27 July 2018

Angus Australia Emerging Leader Presentation

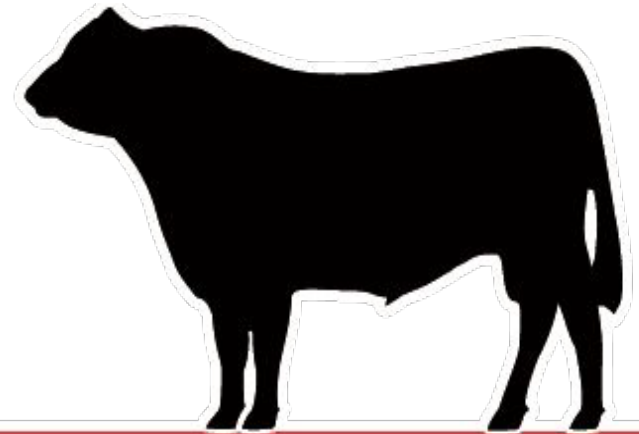

Supporting the next generation

Aiden Coombe
Greenham Tasmania

The journey so far...

- Pathway into the red meat industry
- Learning through experience
- Angus Australia

Angus
AUSTRALIA

Dealing with the pressure

- Be comfortable being uncomfortable
- It's not a mistake if you learn from it
- Attention to detail is key
- Knowledge is no burden to carry

Encouraging the younger generation

- Strong and progressive industries have clearer pathways
- Patience dealing with inexperience
- Continue to challenge thought processes

Encouraging the younger generation

- Responsibility in the workplace creates a sense of ownership
- Technology is second nature to them – use it to your advantage
- Thinking outside the square on farm ownership

Industry information

- Animal welfare is paramount – pain relief, weaning age
- Clean green image should not be considered lightly
- Quality beats quantity – genetics and feed

Top three take home messages

1. Never underestimate young people in the industry
2. Patience and persistence
3. Tasmania packs a big punch against the rest of Australia – traceability and climate

Resources for young people

- Marcus Oldham Rural Leadership Program
- Angus Australia membership and scholarship opportunities

RED MEAT UPDATES

TASMANIA

27 July 2018

Angus Australia Emerging Leader Presentation

Supporting the next generation

Aiden Coombe
Greenham Tasmania

